U of M Crookston Choir to Perform Holiday Music at the Hafslo Chapel on Saturday, December 7, 2013, at 7 p.m.

*By Itollefs on Friday, November 22, 2013*Come celebrate the holiday season with a concert of the holiday's best music performed by the University of Minnesota Crookston choir under the direction of Associate Professor George French. The concert will be held on Saturday, December 7, 2013, at 7 p.m. in the Hafslo Chapel located on the grounds of the Polk County Museum. The concert is free and all are welcome but a free-will offering will be taken.

The Hafslo chapel, once a Norwegian country church, was built in 1888 and closed in 1978. It was moved in 1983 to the Crookston campus where it was located for almost twenty years before it was moved to the Polk County Museum grounds located at 719 East Robert St., Crookston, Minn.

Today the University of Minnesota Crookston delivers 28 bachelor's degree programs, 20 minors, and 39 concentrations on campus--as well as 11 degrees online--in the areas of agriculture and natural resources; business; liberal arts and education; and math, science and technology. With an enrollment of 1,800 undergraduates from 25 countries and 40 states, the Crookston campus offers a supportive, close-knit atmosphere that leads to a prestigious University of Minnesota degree.
